Young People's Rally.

The Baptist church was well filled last night with an audience, the greater part of whom were young people, to hear the inspiring talk by Dr. E. E. Chivers, of Chicago, general secretary of the Baptist Young Peoples' Union of America. The interior of the church audience room was handsomely decorated with palms and evergreens, the work of a number of the ladies, giving it a most pleasing appearance. The half hour song service at the beginning of the services, led by Mrs. J. W. Sylvester, Miss Gilla Smoak, Will Dale and G. A. Nash was a most enjoyable feature. After a few brief introductory remarks by Dr. J. G. Law, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Rev. Rogers introduced Dr. Chivers, the speaker of the evening. After expressing his gratitude at the cordial welcome he had received, he took up the "Young Peoples' Movement," and for over an hour held the closest attention of his large audience. He gave an account of the movement from its first inception, nearly twenty years ago, when a little band of Christian Endeavor workers first organized in a little church in Maine. From this he traced the growth and development of the movement from year to year until it numbers hundreds of thousands and its boundaries encircle the earth. He told of the period in the work when the movement branched out on denominational lines, at which time the Baptist Young Peoples' Union, representing the Baptist and the Epworth League the Methodist denomination, were organized. From this point he took up the Baptist Young Peoples' Union, outlining its principles, purposes and the great work it has accomplished, and the important place it now occupies in the educational and spiritual development of the church.

The speaker dwelt at length on the great need of more careful and systematic Bible study among old and young and a greater regard for our missionary work both at home and abroad. He characterized these two things as the cardinal principles of the young peoples' work. Mr. Chivers is spending a few days among the churches of this state in giving such talks as he gave last night. He is arousing an interest in the work never before felt in this great movement and his few days spent among us will certainly result in great good. He is a tower of strength in the pulpit and is filled with righteous zeal in the work he so ably represents.

One Hour for Trial.

Squire Perry and Joe Stevens, the two young negro employees of the Montgomery Cooperage Shops, were arraigned for their preliminary hearing at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon before Justice Crawford, charged with assault and battery on the person of Charles Jackson. F. A. Lynch secured the services of W. K. Zawadzki to defend his men and he cleared them in short order, the case taking just one hour from the beginning to the time the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. The man, Jackson, is dangerously hurt, with the chances even to live or die, but he brought it on himself. He was drunk and followed the boys up with a big stick, swearing he would kill them, and one of the boys threw a brick and struck him in the head in self defense.

Edward Holder is on the sick list.

Board of Public Instruction.

At their meeting January 3rd all the members were present. The supervisor of the West Linn school, in behalf of the patrons, asked that the school be allowed to run six months, as their school was cut short one month two years ago. Request refused, as there is no fund to pay for extra time, besides other schools could bring claims for similar reasons.

Blaze Pond school asked for more light (windows) but the name indicated the demand was superfluous and the request was turned down.

Miss Frankie Lofton, teacher of the Greenwood school, tendered her resignation, which was accepted. James E. Thomas was appointed to complete the term.

The Weirsdale school attendance having fallen below the average, five, Miss Jennie Ramsey's resignation was accepted and school closed.

Mrs. M. E. Hughes, teacher of the Orange Creek school, colored, being dead and her register and papers not having been received by the superintendent, the school was closed.

The school exchequer having been drained and the board, through its financial agent, B. A. Weathers, failing by telegraph to make a loan from the National Bank of Jacksonville or the Putnam County Bank at Palatka, with which to meet its warrants to be issued, the board allowed holders of warrants 8 per cent. interest from date of issue until there is money in the treasury to pay them.

The board received during December from F. D. Pooser, county levy, $211.71; from poll tax, $108; from state treasurer for tax sale certificates, $216.79; funds on hand, $5,483.44; total, $6,079.94; drawn against this, $5,964.39; balance in treasury, $115.55. All of which was found correct. Paid by warrants, $2,951.48.

Bellevue Christian Endeavor.

The young people's society of Christian Endeavor of Bellevue celebrated their sixth anniversary on Sunday evening, Jan. 9, 1898. An excellent address on the organization of the society was given by Miss Emma L. Miller. An address on the history of the society was made by Miss Jessie Pelot. The address on the "Future Possibilities of the Christian Endeavor Society" by C. Abshier was instructive. The recitations by Misses Ida and Bessie Abshier were well rendered. Two vocal duets were sung and the exercises were interspersed with singing. The visitors from South Lake Weir were: Mr. Upham and wife, Mr. Dean and wife, Mrs. Sigman and Miss Carrie Sigman. The exercises were conducted by D. C. Stanbery.

In Olden Times

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently overcome habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system. Dan A. Miller, Jr., is so well pleased with his six months' stay in Brazil that after a visit to his parents he will return to Volte Grandee, 600 miles from the city of Rio Janeiro, where he worked four months in a machine shop and where he will again receive employment.

House Breaking.

Sunday night Will Lewis, a negro of bad repute, entered J. R. Moorhead's residence and stole a borrowed gun and all the cooked food on the place. Some one recognized the gun and took it away from him. He will be arrested. Last night a similar entrance was made into K. Halsey's home in the third ward and several dollars worth of cooking utensils and provisions stolen. Every one should be on the alert to capture the thieves.

Tampa's Sensations.

Last Friday Tampa had a hanging. The negro Singleton was hung for killing a policeman. On the scaffold he said he did the shooting with intent to kill. All the week the trial of the McNeils was on for killing "Gulp" Hankins. The trial was very exciting. The jury, after being out eighteen hours, acquitted the defendants, as having acted in self defence. A jury also acquitted Moses Stewart, charged with murdering Will White. The evidence showed White was drowned and not murdered.

Hat Etiquette.

Don't wear a silk hat with a sack coat. Don't wear a derby with a frock coat. Don't wear your hat on one side or on the back of your head or pushed down over your eyes. Don't fail to lift it to a lady on showing her a courtesy or to an acquaintance in passing. Even if it's a man, don't be afraid to lift your hat to him. This is a bit of old-time courtesy that obtains to this day among gentlemen, and makes life more gracious. Don't wear an ill-fitting or unbecoming hat. We make it our business to provide hats that fit the head neatly and are becoming to the individual wearers. This is just as true with our derbys as with the finest hat in the store. This derby is hand-shaped, and will always look well as long as it lasts. We have higher priced hats, but none that is better value for the money.
